for ensemble (var.) and one soloist

eva-maria houben

2025

For Harmjan and Steven.

any sounds; pitched or unpitched.

softly emerging and vanishing here and there – nearly nothing.

some sounds

for a while

anytime: some sounds of one player begin to emerge more regularly – realizing more a track of a slow and regular pulsation:

sound – pause – sound – pause – sound – pause – and so on.

the sounds of the ensemble disappear.

the soloist goes on and stops anytime.
