molto rubato.

senza tempo.

senza misura.

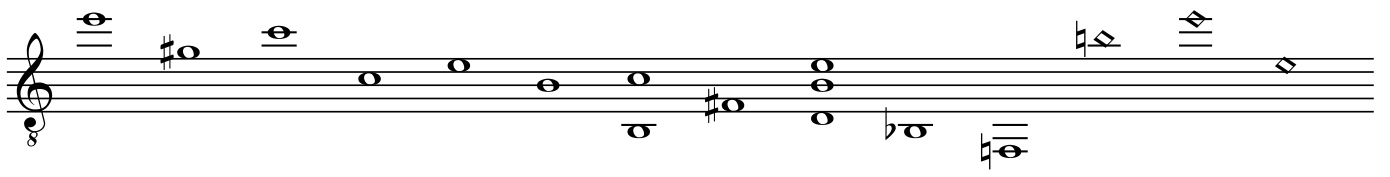

before the next page / chord: some time to listen – reverberating, musing.

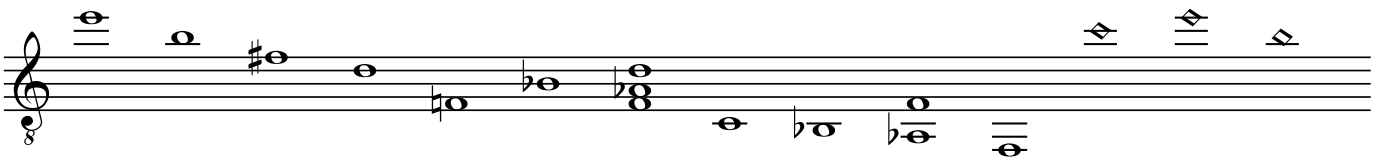

natural or artificial harmonics.

maybe plucking or using the e-bow every now and then.

calm – silence – solitude.

you may like to be playing your own gestures of falling, sometimes swinging a bit upwards, then downwards again, maybe repeating some notes of the chord, playing one note or another in any octaves ... and so on – maintaining the main direction downwards.
